

THE ABLE NETWORK
...promising futures

Coming to Stouffville
in 2018

We inspire adults with intellectual disabilities to reach their full potential through access to better living and employment.

Find out more about this dynamic, community-based program by contacting us at our Aurora location (see below). We welcome families to come for a visit and explore how your son or daughter may fit into our program.